GREENVILLE.

Company D, L. T. L., Preparing for Medal Contest—Ladies' Missionary Society of Baptist Church Meets—Notes.

Company D, Loyal Temperance legion, held its regular meeting at the Greenville Congregational church on Thursday afternoon. The president, Stanley Mulkin, conducted the opening exercises and reports were read by the secretary, Miss Ethel Ellis, and the treasurer, Miss Fannie Grover.
When the roll call was read, the pleasing number of twenty-five responded.
Mrs. J. J. Fields gave an interesting and instructive illustrated anti-cigarette talk, pointing out the evil effects that attend their use. The meeting closed with the Misses' benediction. Two new members were received into Company D at the session, and an especial feature was the piano accompaniment for the singing, played by Mrs. George M. Ellis. Seven of the children have chosen pieces for a medal contest to be held in Greenville as soon as they are prepared.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Regular Meeting Held with Mrs. W. P.
Greene—Followed by Work for Coming Fair.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Missionary society of the Third Baptist church was combined with a session for work in preparation for the society's fair in June. Mrs. William P. Greene was the hospitable hostess, and a large number of members gathered at her home on Prospect street, all being pleasantly surprised by the presence of Mrs. Charles A.
Arnold of Plainville, a former member of the society. Another guest was Mrs. George A. Prink of East Great Barn.

The president Mrs. Joseph E. Very, opened the missionary meeting by reading the fourth chapter of Luke.
The report of the secretary, Mrs. J.
R. Lewis, was heard, and after various business was transacted, the meeting was closed with the singing and prayer. The attention to sewing and other work for the fair, Mrs. Greene was appointed chairman of the supper committee, and she appointed as her assistants Mrs. J. R. Lewis, Mrs. William Lund and Mrs. Herbert Peckham.
The preparations for the supper and sale are progressing nicely.

Hand Injured Again.

Claude Washburn, the popular lineman of the Connecticut company, who had his hand split open two weeks ago by being hit with a baseball, was hurt a second time Thursday morning, and the wound was opened up again, requiring two more stitches to close it.

Amede Pion Awards Contract for Three-Story Building—Left for Western Canada—Personal Mention.

Another new building is to be added to those already being put up in Taffville by Amede Pion of Honters avenue, who on Wednesday afternoon contracted for a three-story house to Contractor G. W. Allen. The dimensions of the building will be 30 by 38 feet, and will contain three fine tenements with modern conveniences.
The location of the building is on Dion avenue, and the contractor will begin work next Wednesday.

Progress on the houses on Hunters avenue, which are being built by Hee-tor Belisle and Amable Deslandes, has been good, the former being about ready for plastering while the cellar work on the latter is almost done at Al the convent grounds the grading is progressing nicely. The Boldue and Wunderlich houses on Norwich avenue are also coming along good shape.

Mrs. Louis Gagnon has us her guest her sister, Mrs. John Smith of Hartford.

Mrs. Rose Lavigne, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Pen-in, for several months, returned on Thursday afternoon to her home in St. Siver, Canada.

Mrs. Joseph Fournier, who underwent an operation in Hartford several weeks ago, is recovering and it is expected that she will be able to return home in two or three weeks more.

MONTVILLE CHURCH REDEDICATED

Union Eaplist House of Worship Greatly Beauified—Funds Raised by Rev. C. C. Chappell—Exercises at the Reopening.

With the church filled, the congregation, including ministers from several churches in the neighborhood and old worshippers who have removed from the town, yet maintained a lively interest in local religious affairs, the re-dedication services of the Union Eaplist church in Montville were held on Tuesday night.

The church, bright, cheerful and attractive inside and out, was well filled and the exercises were of an interesting and uplifting nature. During the few minutes the service had been closed much has been accomplished.
It was found at the outset of the reopening process that a new ceiling was required.

With the exception of the ceiling work, all the alterations have been by local firms. While a detailed statement of the expense is not yet ready, although promised in a short time, it is known that practically all the money has been raised by contributions and entertainments in a remarkably short space of time. The church is beautiful, interior and exterior alike. One feature, however, which no speaker last night alluded to is its appearance from the street, when lighted up, the effect of the stained glass, seen through the foliage of the trees, forming a pretty picture.

The principal speaker of the evening was Rev. D. D. Munro, pastor of Calvary Baptist church, New Haven, who delivered a very timely and inspiring sermon. After an opening instrumental solo, the rendering of the opening chorus, "He Lifted Me," Mrs. E. E. Munro, Rev. D. D. Munro, and responsive Scripture reading led by Rev. H. T.
Arnold of Norwich, acting pastor of Montville Congregational church, Rev.
D. D. Munro was introduced.

Dr. Munro stated that his first duty was to congratulate the pastor, Rev. George C. Chappell, and the congregation upon the transformation which has been wrought in the church.

Dr. Munro spoke from the book of the Revelation 18:3, "After he had loved us." After eloquently depicting the glory of the world, sceptres, crowns, robes and riches, all to be thrust into the sea, he asked if that were not too much power and prosperity was dangerous and ruinous to some. This, the speaker said, was altogether impossible in regard to Christ. All human philosophers had failed to give an answer to the question. He stated that without the blood of Christ all churches might at once close their doors.

Following Dr. Munro's sermon, the day afternoon and his first three fingers were cut off at the first joint and his little finger was crushed. He received medical attention.

A party of young ladies from the drawing-in room of the Potomac mills visited the first to enjoy the new church. The program of the evening was in the maple finishing floor, which is about half-finished. A dance has been proposed to be held in the shed after the floor is completed, but the matter is doubtful.

Thomas Jewell of 45 Providence street with his two sons, left Thursday for Alberta, in western Canada.
From Montreal to which Mr. Jewell will arrive, he has given up his old home and his destination. He plans to take up a government homestead claim and to engage in farming. His claim will be about 20 miles from a railroad station, but line is to be built near it in a year or two. His wife and the rest of his family will remain in the city. Mr.
Jewell has been employed for nearly a year as carpenter by the Potomac company.

NORWICH TOWN

May Meeting of Missionary Society—Dr. Lucille James' Second Health Talk—Social Whist.

The May meeting of the Ladies' Home Missionary society of the First Congregational church was held in the chapel on Wednesday afternoon. It was in charge of Mrs. Fitch L. Allen and Mrs. Woodbury O. Rogers. After singing and scripture reading, read by Mrs. George Williams, Mrs. N. D.
Robinson read a paper which she had prepared on the Mountain White.
Part of the paper was written from personal observation. A letter from Rev. M. J. Penning of Northland college, Ashland, Wis., was read by George R. Hyde. It was planned to raise the sum of $10 for his work there.
The meeting closed with the singing of Work, for the Night is Coming.

Whist on Thursday Evening.

The whist usually held on Tuesday evening was suspended on Wednesday evening of this week at Parish hall.
Hearts were trumps. The scores were:
Miss Anna Fittum, Miss Nellie Kingley, Miss Catherine Butler and Miss Annie Lynch. Dancing followed the whist. Prizes were won by: Ladies, Miss Catherine Butler and Miss Annie Lynch; gentlemen's first, John Mullin, cigar case; ladies' second, Miss Mary Fields, ink well; gentlemen's second, John Kingley, memorandum book; ladies' third, Mrs. Henry Mc-Nulty, top hat; gentlemen's third, Michael Lynch, tin horse.

Danger of a Cold.

The second in the series of illustrated health talks was given by Dr. Lucille James on Wednesday evening in the vestry of the Methodist Episcopal church. Her subject was Catarrhal Conditions of the Throat and Lungs, to catarrh and deafness, and in its worst forms to tuberculosis. It should be taken care of at first, and remedies were suggested. A meeting for next Wednesday evening was announced, and a cordial invitation to be present was given to the girls and their mothers.

Newsy Notes.

Miss Adelaide A. Beckwith is entertaining her nephew, Mr. Brand, of

OLD BOOKS TO BE

SHOWN IN EXHIBIT

At First Congregational Church—Some Date Back to 1630.

Among the books to be seen at the First Congregational church during its anniversary is one containing of five Latin essays by William Amesius, which was published in Amsterdam in 1630; another contains Meeting House accounts, 1752, including lottery subscriptions. There is a letter of Benjamin Loring, D. D., concerning arrears in salary, 1767.

The hymn book of First church Norwich in and about 1774, together with the Bible used, published in 1729, purchased 1774, rescued from the fire of 1801, and rebound in 1840. This Bible contains the ritual of the Church of England. A sermon case of Rev.
Joseph Strong, D. D., may be seen containing Dr. Strong's license to preach, 1774; a manuscript sermon by Dr.
Strong, also a eulogy of George Washington.

There is a volume of sermons by Robert Sanderson, lord bishop of Lincoln, London, 1631, with "Life" by Isaac Walton. The Records of the Church of Norwich from 1699. "An Account of the Church of Norwich, the of Offenders who have made their Peace with the Church, and who have been restored to the communion of the Church of England, made Public Confession thereof, and Was Reconciled to the Church on ye 30th day of April, 1704."

Works of Richard Baxter—vol. II, London, 1747. Presented by Hon. Samuel H. Johnson of London in 1745 to the four Congregations of Norwich in New England. "While you use of the Pastors and People, more especially those who are after Sermon on ye Lord's Days in ye place of public worship, to be read to them or by them."

THE PHOEBUS.

New Amateur Paper Published by Carl S. Morgan.

The ranks of Norwich publications were increased this week, when Carl S. Morgan, of Grotonville, the owner, editor and publisher, received from the hands of the printers the first copies of the Phoebus. It is connected with the United Amateur Press association, which has about 600 members scattered all through the United States.

The first number of volume I of the Phoebus is only a four page sheet, 6 by 11-2 inches, but for an amateur and for an initial issue it is a creditable production.

The editor thus set forth his aim to publish a paper that may have the distinction of trying to live up to the principles which its name signifies, and by publishing poems that are bright, stories that are pure and educational, that clearly define their word, that is now under procedure in the amateur journalistic field. Mr. Morgan has an article on camping on the Shetucket, and also announces his condemnation for E. Msa manager of the Uapa convention at Chattanooga this year. The Phoebus will be issued regularly, and Mr. Morgan hopes to interest others in this vicinity in the work.

Strawberry Supper.

At the Spiritual Academy on Thursday evening the Helping Hands had a large patronage for a strawberry supper. The menu was rich in variety and quality, and was nicely served.
It included shrimp and salmon salad, potato, vegetable and egg salads, strawberry shortcake, strawberries and cream.

Mrs. Lyon Read Synopsis.

At the Round Table meeting on Tuesday evening Mrs. J. A. S. Lyon read the synopsis and finished the novel, Prisoner of Hope.

Chance for a Bet.

Atchison people seem determined to force a certain bachelor to marry.
For 20 years they have been "talking" about him, and wondering if he is going to marry this one or that one.
Why can't people let the poor man alone? If he wants to be a bachelor, whose business is it? Every time he "goes" with a new girl, Atchison people begin betting on the result. (And incidentally we will bet five to one that his present steady doesn't land him.)—Atchison Globe.

Bagged a White Tiger.

From India comes a story of an Albin tiger: A white tiger, eight feet eight inches in length, has been shot at Dhenkanu state, Orissa. The ground color was pure white and the stripes were of a deep reddish black.
The skin has been presented to the rajah of Dhenkanu, who has had it mounted and placed in his palace.
The hunters of that country say that it is the only white tiger they have seen.

Fate of the Spanish Woman.

Evelyn Milford, writing in the Queen, says that the women of the lower classes in Spain do not make "parties" in the American sense of the word. They do their household work, go to church, and that is all there is of life to them. Their husbands are very jealous of them, and they grow old and weary before their time.

A Poet's Work.

A letter by Robert Southey, just discovered, contains the lament that everybody reads poetry but no one thinks it. In this age people do not even read it, but they continue to read "The Story of the Three Bears" without knowing it was originated by the great poet.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Has Poetry Enough; Wants Wood.

We have on hand more poetry than we can find room for. What we need is more wood. If it true the poetry is made of wood, but it doesn't bring out the warmth of oak and pine. We therefore prefer an ordinary load of wood to a cord of poetry.—Adams (Ga.) Enterprise.

Keep Character Unspotted.

If you would have the respect, not to mention the confidence, of your fellows, you must keep the cloak of character virgin white; never allow its luster to be dimmed by the breath of suspicion or soiled by the mud of wrongdoing.—Dr. Madison C. Peters.

His Vain Regret.

A Duluth four-year-old hopeful, who was receiving an application of the corrective rod, looked up to his offending father, who had told him of his pre-arranged whereabouts, and said:
"Oh, mamma, I wish I'd stayed in heaven!"

DAUGHTERS OF LIBERTY.

State Convention Held at Hartford and Officers Elected.

The seventeenth annual session of the Daughters of Liberty, an auxiliary organization of the O. U. S. A. M., opened in Hartford Wednesday for a two day session. Mrs. Minnie Clark of Waterbury, state councillor, presided.
There were nearly forty councils in the state and representatives of these were present at the meeting. The attendance being about 100. Thirty-six new members were voted in at the morning session. The meeting adjourned at 12:30 for dinner.

The following officers were elected Wednesday afternoon:

Councilor, Mrs. Emma Risley of New Haven; associate councillor, Mrs.
Mary E. Rodgeron of Bridgeport; associate vice councillor, Mrs. Sarah E.
Myers of Danbury; recording secretary, Mrs. Nellie McNary of New Britain; assistant recording secretary, Mrs.
Cora E. Allen of Southbury; state treasurer, Mrs. Abbie Palmerton of New Haven; state associate treasurer, Mrs. Ellen Leach of Southington; state auditor, Mrs. Minnie Murgatroid of New Haven; state inside guard, Mrs. Mary Barclough of New Canaan; state outside guard, Mrs. Mary E. Rodgeron of Bridgeport; three representatives to national council, Mrs. Minnie Clark of Waterbury, third alternate, Mrs. Sarah Trenner of Bridgeport; fourth alternate, Mrs. Addie Ballou of New Haven.

Immediately following the election the officers were installed by S. A.
Charles of Jersey City, N. J., the national councillor, assisted by H. J.
Gleason, the national secretary. The banquet was held in the dining hall connected with Grand Army hall, the tables being attractively decorated with flowers.

Loss Without Consolation.

The consolation in losing a vermi-form appendix is that a man can go through life, after the operation, and no one can tell by his appearance that he is something short. But when it comes to losing hair, it is different.

A Bad Taste, Perhaps.

Did you ever notice how much more lonely a crowd looks to you on some days than on some others? It is a fact, however, strange as it may seem. And, noticing it, did you ever take anything for it?

The Argument.

"When you come to figurin' in de loss ob time, temper an' mebbe friendship," said Uncle Eben, "it's mighty hard fob anybody to say fob certain dat he has had de best of an argy-ment."

Maybe He Does.

When we remember that a woodpecker often works his way into a tree with his bill, we wonder that a woodpecker doesn't have headache constantly.—Atchison Globe.

And So Many Do.

"Dar ain' no doubt," said Uncle Eben, "dat money does no harm dan good to a man dat regards it simply as a license to git proud an' foolish."

Shoes of Ancient Jews.

Shoes among the ancient Jews were made of leather, linen, rush, or wood; and soldiers' shoes were sometimes made of brass or iron.
